Hamard concerning the purported conspiracy.

Agence France-Press dispatches from Rennes, in Brittany, named M. de Vulpain, editor of the weekly, France Vivant and president of a veterans' organization, among those arrested, together with Marc Jaquet, a wine merchant at Montauban, and recteur of the abbey at Lamoignon in the Rhone valley, identified only as Raul.

DEPREUX CONFIRMED

De Gaulle identified De Vulpain as one of three of these persons and identified the Raul as a count, De Vulpain was brought to Paris last Wednesday and signed a statement implicating himself and Gaudouin in the affair, the minister said.

He said Gaudouin was questioned at once, but was not taken into custody until he allegedly acknowledged that he knew about the alleged Maquis organization and had had some relations with nearly every person implicated.

Also arrested last night, De Gaulle said, was Mme. de Valz, a widow in the east of France, who had a large quantity of gold was found. She was given provisional release, but her husband, a member of the "resistance" group, was held for the apartment and that Gen. Gaudouin was present at all of them, the minister declared.

HE SAID SOME of the persons had tried to enter the Rhine, Charles de Gaulle's party, the chief of the French People, but had been refused admission.

He said the organization even proposed a clandestine newspaper, Le Bureau (The Network), copies were seized at last Friday's roundup.

"Ike" Says War Not Impossible

American Army "Poor Second" Compared to That of Russia

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, planning for increased funds for the army, told Senators Saturday the war department estimate of needs for the next fiscal year, 1951, does not include probability of war, but "does not entirely exclude such a possibility."

EISENHOWER TOLD a Senate subcommittee that the United States army is a poor second to the Russian army, but he said the house voted the department for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

"While the war department's estimate of the situation for the fiscal year 1951 does not include the probability of war, it does not entirely exclude such a possibility," the first general said during a two-hour closed-door session.

The army chief of staff said he must rate the "capability of the United States army to defend our country should war occur."

"Relative to the armies of other powers, I judge that our army is far from and thinly deployed about the world. It is composed, in the main, of young, inexperienced volunteers."

The top army officer said he agrees with Gen. Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, top navy officer, that "conclusions about future 'push-button' warfare are premature."

Bennett Buried Oil Development

had heard Mr. Rev. John MacMillan, Anglican Bishop of Guiford, praise Lord Bennett's "understanding, sympathy, generosity and Christian faith."

Scores more stood outside the grave as the Rev. MacMillan, Bishop of Guiford, praised Lord Bennett's "understanding, sympathy, generosity and Christian faith."

Lord Bennett, brought up a Methodist, and a Methodist throughout his life, was buried by the Church of England.

Mr. Michael's stands at the end of the curving roadway leading from the Junior High residence Lord Bennett bought before the war at his brother's friend, Lord Beaverbrook, and is the church he had attended during his years in the neighborhood.

Shortly before 5 p.m. the slow procession, led by L. Dana Wilgus, seeing Canadian high commissioner to the United Kingdom, and by Maj. Gen. George P. Vanier, Canadian ambassador to France, moved into the church.

Lord Beaverbrook attended, together with representatives of the British government.

Behind came the casket, carried shoulder-high by four bearers, Ven. Archdeacon C. H. Golding-Bird, who was taking their rest, Rev. R. M. Landis-Smith, vicar of St. Michael's, and a close friend of Lord Bennett, and a close friend of Lord Bennett, and a close friend of Lord Bennett.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see our God. The secret of the Lord is theirs, Their mind is 'Church' books."

PROMINENT was a wreath from Prime Minister Mackenzie King and the Canadian government, bearing the inscription: "The prime minister and government of Canada."

Meanwhile, the House of Lords passed in its London deliberations to honor the memory of its departed member.

Vancouver Addition, Dominions secretary, said Lord Bennett was the champion of Commonwealth interests and was noted for his generosity and helpfulness to all manner of deserving causes.

To Be Married

They would be spending "more time together before."

Thus with Imperial's huge figure, and their plan to build a residence in the city, valued at $10,000 and $12,000 in Edmonton, the collective total of various common-law marriages may equal or even exceed $80,000.

A drill team on Imperial's Le Sueur 500 acre weekend house only drilling mud with no signs of oil at 439 feet. It was the first test taken and officials were not expecting signs of crude since its depth is still more than 100 feet from the stratum where the 1, 2, 3 and 4 wells yielded first signs.

Preparatory to resumption of drilling, crews were busy on mud conditioning at No. 5 and another formation test was not expected before Wednesday.

Two carloads of pipeline and equipment are now being unloaded at the Nisku railhead and work on laying the pipeline from that town into the producing field, about seven miles distant, is expected to begin shortly.

Drilling depths on Imperial's other projects were still above the line of frequent testing on Monday with drills on all projects being deeper.

The company had no announcement to make on new sites in other proposed 21-well program for this fall.

Eleven Bound, Gagged

"Gentlemen" Thieves Make $175,000 Haul

ALLEN TOWN, Pa., June 30.—(AP)—"Gentlemen" thieves made off with a loot of nearly $175,000 early Saturday after holding up 11 persons in a fashionable 10-room hotel.

THREE GUNMEN, and a masked man, described as the ringleader, bound and gagged 11 couples, and a 15-year-old boy in the dining hall.

Lois Wiener, the manufacturer whose home was entered, said they were very gentlemanly about the whole thing.

Of the loot, Wiener said, $125,000 was in non-negotiable bonds which he held in his home as trustee of Allen's Temple Hotel. The remainder was in jewelry, cash and war bonds.

Wiener gave police this version of the holdup:

He and his wife were sitting on the front porch of their home, about 11 p.m. Friday night chatting with store owner Harry Neff and manufacturer Bernard Salinsky and their wives.

THE FOUR MEN approached, spoke quietly to the group, flourished revolvers and ordered them into the house. Once inside, they bound and gagged all but Wiener, who covered all windows shades.

They went upstairs, found 11 couples and a 15-year-old son.

THE DOORBELL rang. With the gun, Wiener entered the room and instructed his servants, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pfingstler, to take the key to Pfingstler's automobile.

A few moments later, the Wiener 18-year-old daughter, Clara, and the Salinsky 15-year-old son, Irwin, arrived and they also were bound, gagged and robbed.

Atom Coffee Bar Now Open

New open after two and one-half months of concentrated effort by two Canadian army signal corps veterans, W. "Bill" Ruchman and E. "Eddie" Ward, the Atom Coffee Bar, 920 Jasper avenue, is ready to serve patrons in a cool atmosphere of restful colors and gleaming cleanliness. Facing the shortest street in the world, Thornton Court, the Atom coffee shop is, according to its proprietors, "Long on service." Soft pastel shades of green and pink, Chinese-inspired upholstered seats and booths, bright chromium fixtures, and natural golden woodwork make it an ideal setting for a quick coffee or a full course meal.—Advt.

THE TORTURE TEST

Tells THE TRUTH ABOUT TIRES

PROVING THAT Goodyear gives you most for your money

WHAT is the Torture Test? Two tires... a Goodyear... and another make... are clamped in running position against a motor-driven drum. The surface of the drum is studded with thick, steel bars.

The switch is thrown! 'Round and 'round spins the drum... grinding with equal force against both tires... pounding, punching, pummeling... 24 hours a day. Simultaneously, both tires are given the same terrific, smashing punishment.

Finally, one of them gives way. But one rolls on and on! The winner? Test after test discloses the same result: Goodyear tires are superior in performance to all others!

Hearings End Soon See Radio Committee Report Stirring Row

By D'Arcy O'Donnell

OTTAWA, June 30 (CP)—The radio committee of the Commons is expected to complete hearing of evidence this week and to begin the controversial task of drafting a report for Parliament and judging by discussions in committee a full-scale debate may be engaged.

Wins Scholarship

OFFICIALS of the Musicians' Union in Canada are scheduled to appear Thursday for questioning on the fees paid to Canadian radio artists.

It has not yet been decided whether Reconstruction Minister Howe, Transport Minister Chervier and G. C. W. Browne, radio controller in the transport department, will be called to testify.

The question of whether they should be called arose last week after a brief prepared by Mr. Browne was tabled before the committee. The brief was interpreted by some as a statement of the government. Mr. Howe said it could only be considered as the views of Mr. Browne.

THE BRIEF presented to the request of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters and the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association for establishment of an independent body to regulate and control radio in Canada.

The establishment of such a body would lead to confusion in the technical control of radio.

The recommendation of the CAB and the CDNA probably will be the main points of argument during the drafting of the report to Parliament.

THE CAB has asked for a recommendation from the committee on future policy with respect to the issuance of radio airtime licenses to newspapers or others.

It has also asked the committee to recommend that the CBC be allowed to retail full revenue from the annual $2.50 license fee. The CBC now has to pay collection and administration cost, and averages about $215 a license.

The committee's report will not be made public until it is tabled in the Commons.

Showing Interest In Developments

Industrialists attending the Chemical Institute of Canada and the Canadian Manufacturers' Association conventions held recently in Alberta are showing deep interest in industrial development here, according to W. H. Thompson, director of the Alberta Industrial Development Board.

This interest is indicated in the volume of letters of inquiry being received.

To assist local boards of trade and chambers of commerce the provincial department has prepared a booklet dealing with the resources of the province as a whole, which is so arranged that local boards may make inserts into the pamphlet setting forth the specific advantages of their own districts.

University Plans New Dairy Course

Important development in the scheme of dairy education in Alberta, in the form of a diploma course in dairying at the University of Alberta, was announced today by H. B. Thornton, professor of dairying at the university.

The course will begin November 3 at the university and will run until April 30, 1936.

Veterans with DVA approval will receive priority for attending the course, but non-veterans between the ages of 18 and 30 years are eligible.

Transportation to the university and subsistence allowances will be supplied by the government.

Minimum admission requirements are Grade 9 school standing or its equivalent and one season's experience in a dairy plant.

The course is being offered jointly by the university department of dairying, the dairy branch, department of agriculture and Canadian vocational training.

Purpose is to increase dairying knowledge and methods in the province.

Subjects covered range from butter and cheese making to dairy bacteriology and engineering repair.

Diploma or certificates of record will be granted by the university upon successful conclusion of the course.

Servicemen Plan Meet Gen. Foulkes

Freedom of the Press

What precisely is meant by that familiar phrase, 'freedom of the press'?

Essentially it is not a special privilege reserved for newspaper publishers. It is rather a phase of a much larger freedom—the freedom of all men to speak their minds openly and without fear. The press claims no right which should not belong to every citizen in a democracy, but freedom of the press is an all-important part of this larger freedom, because, under modern conditions, the press is the principal agency by which the ordinary man receives the information he needs to judge the actions of his rulers and make up his mind on public issues. Without newspapers, or with only gagged and blindfolded ones, he is in the dark and helpless. An unfettered press is therefore one of the essential bulwarks of a democratic world.

If any proof be needed, it is provided by the record of the Fascist and Nazi dictatorships. Rigid control of all sources of public information, and especially of newspapers, was the corner-stone upon which those regimes were founded. Without it, they could never have held power. With it, they could do as they pleased, to the eventual ruin of their own peoples as well as much of the rest of the world.

The disastrous chapter of history should provide a warning against any attempt, by dictators or by private interests, to restrict the essential freedom of the press. A free people must stand on guard not against direct censorship, but also against more insidious encroachments. Nominal freedom is not enough. The only truly free press is one which can record the news faithfully and comment on it frankly, without fear of direct or indirect punishment. Neither the press nor the public is safe with anything less than this.

Liberty, of course, involves obligations. The obligation of a free press is to be truly free. It must be thorough, accurate and unbiased in its reporting, sincere and thoughtful in its editorials, and resistant to all outside pressure. It must be both cautious and bold—cautious until it knows all the facts, bold when it is sure of its ground. It must, above all, be inspired by devotion to the public welfare as its staff stands there.

Such a newspaper is worthy of the privileges which the English-speaking peoples have traditionally granted to their press. Such a newspaper is also the best guardian of the liberties of the people.

Woman Gets Term For Stealing Pants

A female trouser thief appeared in city police court Saturday morning and drew a 60-day jail term. She is Christina Watson, Edmonton, who at 4:50 a.m. Saturday was found walking down the street with a pair of men's trousers in her hand. Constable Joseph Checkisla arrested the woman in a lane between 95 and 96 streets near 102A avenue.

At first the woman said the trousers belonged to her husband. Later they were identified as belonging to John Angus Murray, 8529 102A avenue. The woman had stolen the trousers, containing Murray's wallet, following a party at Murray's residence.

Michael Kozma, 12009 63 street, talked himself into a pack of clothes.

CPLA Is Planning New Plane Service

Application for a new air service to the Kootenay Lakes and Okanagan Valley, between Vancouver and Calgary, will be made on July 8 by Canadian Pacific Air Lines, Grant McConachie, president of CPA, said here Saturday.

Mr. McConachie is on his way back to Montreal following an inspection trip over the newly-opened air route connecting Vancouver and Prince Rupert.

The president said he would come back west for the hearing of the Air Transport Board of Canada that will be held in Nelson, BC, on July 8.

Service applied for would bring daily scheduled flights to Penticton, Trail, Nelson, Cranbrook, Kimberley and Calgary, with the western terminus at Vancouver. Mr. McConachie said that the new Vancouver-Prince Rupert daily service is being well received and expressed satisfaction with volume of traffic to date. The service started on June 15 last.

After attending the air transport board meeting at Nelson, Mr. McConachie will return to Edmonton and begin a vacation at Seba Beach with his wife and family.

In August he plans an aerial inspection of the company's northern routes.

Chessmen Honor John W. Barnett

A ceremony took place at the Edmonton Chess Club recently when John W. Barnett, president of the club was presented with a beautiful set of chessmen, chess board and an advanced book on chess. Vice-president A. Shinkins made the presentation on behalf of the club, assuring Mr. Barnett that all members deeply appreciated his service to the club and looked forward in many more years of friendly association.

The presentation was made on the occasion of Mr. Barnett's retirement as secretary of the Alberta Teachers Association and as an expression of the universal esteem of all member of the club.

Robert Christianson, winner of the Edmonton Chess Club championship for 1934-35 with a percentage of 30.4, was presented with a chess book.

The hymn, "From Greenland's Icy Mountains," was written in 15 minutes by Bishop Heber.

Keep Sharp Outlook Sleeping Sickness

The provincial veterinarian's department is keeping a sharp lookout for any outbreaks of equine sleeping sickness this year. Dr. P. R. Talbot, provincial veterinarian said Saturday.

Up to the end of June, no cases of the disease i.e., been reported but ample supply of vaccine is being maintained and will be made available should the need arise. Mr. Talbot doubted that many farmers are vaccinating their horses in fear of an outbreak, in view of the absence of the disease and the low market prices for horses.

Quality of Cheese In Alberta Improves

Quality of Alberta cheese has shown a marked improvement in the last six months. L. M. Silcox, supervisor of dairy, plant inspection for the Alberta government, said Saturday. Federal cheese grading reports indicate improved quality.

Henry Martell Shoots Sub-Par Golf to Beat Johnny Letke in City Amateur Golf Final; Stott and McAvoy Newly Crowned King and Queen of City Tennis Courts

HENRY MARTELL, above, banged out long, straight drives and his short game was right in the groove Sunday as he won his 223, straight putt to beat Johnny Letke in the City Amateur Golf Final. Martell, a sub-par player, won the title.

Martell Blazes Hot Trail in Golf Final

Downs Letke 9-6, But Given Scare By Buddy Loftus

Henry Martell is sitting comfortably atop the city amateur golf throne today after scoring a decisive 9 and 7 triumph over Country Club's Johnny Letke in the 36-hole final at Mayfair yesterday. But it will be some time to come before he completely recovers from the shock he received in his tension-filled semi-final against young Buddy Loftus.

It was Henry's 12th consecutive triumph. He did not compete last year. Buddy, who won the city junior championship a week ago, had the Dominion champs all wrapped up and ready for mailing to the sidelines when Henry burst out of the package and staged a typical Martell rally. Henry was two down and three to go and hit a tricky three-hole downhill putt on the 18 for victory.

THE CHAMP DIDN'T take any chances with Letke as he breezed around the first 11 holes in 65 one under par for the afternoon and under par for the tournament. He was two down and three to go and hit a tricky three-hole downhill putt on the 18 for victory.

Letke, whose putter, and a slight case of "peaking" let him down the first 11 holes, played sterling golf in the afternoon and drew loud applause from the gallery of more than 200. He hit Henry's lead to seven in the early play, but Martell took the 26th and 27th with a birdie and par and they started the last nine with Johnny down nine.

He kept his slim hopes alive by taking the 28th when Henry

Plans Completed For Fight Card

Arrangements for next Thursday night's fight card at Kingsway park under Good Light featuring Buddy MacDonell and Sgt. Joe Trudeau over the lightweight title for the Western Canada Light-heavyweight championship have been completed.

MacDonell wound up his heavy training on Saturday and was pronounced as being ready sharp. Trudeau, a member of the Prince's Pals in Calgary, will arrive in Edmonton Tuesday.

Johnny Kins, scheduled to oppose Will Desjardins in the night round semi-final, arrived over the weekend and appeared very confident.

When you're WORN OUT and Worried, try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They'll give you the energy and vigor you need to get on with your life.

JOHNNY LETKE, above, showed the large gallery that followed the city final that he had of shots in his bag yesterday afternoon after he got away to a bad start in the morning round against Henry Martell. Letke, who had the Dominion champs over for the last 11 holes and clinging close to par figures.

Stott and McAvoy Capture Net Titles

Dish Up Classy Performances In City Finals

Johnny Stott, a 24-year-old star, with a smashing service and plenty of all-round net skill, and veteran Bonnie McAvoy, both of Civil Service, captured the city men's and ladies' singles crown of the city tennis championships tournament at Glenora on Saturday afternoon.

In winning the individual trophies Stott and Miss McAvoy defeated the "Mighty Midget," Harold Kinloch, and the "Mighty Midget," Harold Kinloch, who had been the "Mighty Midget" winners from the previous year.

Stott, a seven-time winner of the singles crown, showed plenty of skill that has made him one of the best in the city. He defeated Kinloch in the final, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2, in an exciting match that lasted over two hours.

Stott, who is a good tennis player, was a pleasant surprise to the spectators. He was a former champion of the city and had been a member of the city tennis team for several years.

McAvoy, who is a former champion of the city and had been a member of the city tennis team for several years.

Esks Cop 2 Out of 3 In Series With 99's

Steady chucking for six innings by Tommy Brant and nice relief hurling by Forest Hunter, coupled with a nine-hit attack by their team-mates, yesterday gave Edmonton Esks a 5-3 victory over Calgary Purty 99 in an Inter-city Baseball League game at Renfrew Park.

The triumph by the local outfit gave them the lead in a three-game weekend series here. Purty won 3-1 on Saturday night's game.

Brant, who pitched for six innings, was the star of the game. He pitched a complete game, allowing only three runs, two earned, and six hits.

Esks added two more in the fourth. Gordon and Brant rounded up the tally with a pair of singles, and a fielder's choice, and one more in the fifth when Stevenson, a two-batter, led off with a single and the rest of the team followed.

Newly-crowned "king" and "queen" of city tennis courts, CIVIL colorful net star, Johnny Stott, men's singles champion, and clubmate Bonnie McAvoy, ladies' singles winner, are shown above demonstrating two of their outstanding shots. Stott, who was forced to go all out before edging the "Mighty Midget" Harry Kinloch of Garneau, picked up a number of valuable points with his low sweeping backhand. Miss McAvoy, also defeated a former champion in Garneau's label Hooper in three exciting sets.

Your Baby and Mine

The presence of a new baby in the household is bound to cause some strain on the older child. Yet it is the loving care of mothers that makes the difference how deeply the mother loves her child either her daily behavior toward him or her love for him. She is certain to be no less loving to her baby, that her attention to the older child are largely in the form of demands that he perform as an older child, prohibitions of behavior which annoy and inconvenience him.

None of these are pleasant attributes and if the mother persists in justifying in limiting her love to him. It is because the baby uses up so much of her time.

Mrs. B. has a good suggestion along these lines. She says: "I have a little system that may be of help in other mothers. I take up feeding time to feed the baby I always leave my older boy in the toilet. When I start him playing I look at a book, or I have him sit on the floor and I start him looking at stories or rhymes. He is now learning some of his Mother Goose songs."

This is an effective way to meet the child's need for attention and loneliness while the baby is fed. The mother has to be physically absent from the child.

Because for 20 years I was the victim of my mother's jealousy, I can tell you a decent home nor gave me any love.

THE TAME CATS

It is strange to think that many of the cats we see in the pet shop are descended from the wild cats and tigers in the jungle, but this is true. The domestic cat is descended from the wild cat, and its lineage is shown by the lithe, agile bodies, the sharp teeth so well adapted to tearing meat, the sharp curved claws, and the muzzle armed in spreading fangs.

There are many breeds of cats, and each breed has its own special country, having their special color, mark brown face, ears, legs and tail, on a pale fawn body, with deep blue eyes. There are also brown Siamese cats.

The Persians and the alley cats have many colors. There are white cats, black cats, yellow cats, mottled (blue or slate-colored) cats, and many others.

There are also tortoiseshells, or three-colored cats, sometimes called calico.

Weetman-MacDonnell Wedding Held at Knox United Church

The mair of Knox United Church was the scene of the wedding Saturday afternoon of Miss Margaret Eleanor MacDonnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. MacDonnell, of Edmonton, and Richard Elsworth Weetman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Weetman, of Lavallo. The Rev. Egan (T. Turnbull) performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an afternoon dress of white spun rayon with white accessories. She wore a white floral hat and a corsage of pink roses. Miss Agnes Grice was the bride's only attendant. Douglas Hattway was best man.

At a reception, following the ceremony, mothers of the bride and bridegroom received with the wedding party. Set in linen, a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by vases of flowers and ivory tapers, centred the bride's table.

Later the couple left for a honeymoon at Pigeon Lake, where the bride is travelling in a pearl gray wool suit.

St. Anthony's Church Scene McCormick-Gallup Wedding

The rectory of St. Anthony's Church was the scene of the wedding Saturday afternoon of Miss Laura Gertrude Gallup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gallup, and John Joseph McCormick, son of Mrs. Mary McCormick and the late Mr. McCormick of Edmonton. The Rev. Father C. J. Form performed the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a midnight blue wool dress with white accessories, trimmed with navy blue flowers, navy blue and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and sweetheart roses.

After the ceremony a dinner for the wedding party was held at the home of the bride's parents where the table was set with white linens and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked with vases of flowers and lighted white tapers. The best man proposed the bride's toast.

Residence will be established at 11444 St. Street.

Today's Markets

Today's Market Summary
TORONTO—Featureless action is seen with no trends established except for weakness, which showed a majority of gains.
CALGARY—The tone of oil stock trading showed an improvement, some leaders up as much as five points.
NEW YORK—Assorted oils and special stocks make new high while leaders fall.
MONTREAL—Industrials and alcohol are better, while papers and oils ease in dull trading.

ASK US ABOUT YOUR LIVESTOCK

Referring first to the livestock market here. Expert advice will be given to you by the following:

O. A. BROWN, Ltd.
 Edmonton Stockyards, Ph. 71154

Livestock

EDMONTON LIVESTOCK
 Stockyards receipts: cattle 306, hogs 25, sheep 200, sheep 10.

There was no undue action on the cattle market Monday and few sales up to noon indicated prices about steady with previous close.

Receipts normal, bulk from the north and will be shown later in the day. Choice steers quoted 15.15 to 15.40, choice heifers 14.15 to 14.40 and choice light cows 13.15 to 13.40.

As a rule, calves are sold below dry cows. Feeder calves: good to choice handyweights 12.15 to 12.40.

Hog, grade A at stockyards for shipment 21.15, local plants 20.15, some liveweights on stockyards 12.15 to 12.40.

Lambs a few spring, choice 15.50, choice handyweights, local 13.15, off cars 12.50.

Note: Tuesday Dominion Day, stockyards closed to trading but receipts will be cared for in usual manner.

WINNIPEG LIVESTOCK

WINNIPEG (CP) — Trade was practically at a standstill with practically no trade tendered on slaughter house Monday. The indications were that the bulk of the supplies will be carried over the holiday. Cattle prices were not established; receipts 1,200. Hogs 670. Sheep 200. Sheep 100. Sheep 10.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

NEW YORK (CP) — The Canadian dollar was down 1/2 at a discount of 4 1/2 percent in terms of United States funds at mid-day. The pound sterling was up 1/8 at 84.00 1/2.

TIME REPEATS ITSELF

If you happen to come across a calendar of the year 1901, you can look it up and use it because it corresponds with the 1946 calendar. A Dublin incident. And if you are of a saving disposition don't destroy the current year calendar for it will come in handy again for 1957, 1967, 1976, 1985 and 1991.

Grain Prices

WINNIPEG (CP) — The grain exchange remained closed on Monday for the long week-end holiday and will reopen Wednesday.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago grain market and wheat were not far behind, gaining about two to three cents late in the session.

Cash corn was in active demand and country offerings were light at 13.00 prices.

General commission house buying and a general lack of hedge selling boosted wheat. Belief that a four sales government was buying for export will continue active also.

Wheat futures were up 1/2 to 1 1/2, bought 221,000 bushels of wheat of the crop outlook. It's vital to your dinner table, to your pocketbook. Farm income is important key to outlook for all business.

1867—DOMINION OF CANADA—1947

EATON'S and the Dominion have grown up together

1867. Union of the Provinces of Canada (Upper and Lower Canada become Ontario and Quebec), Nova Scotia and New Brunswick as the Dominion of Canada.

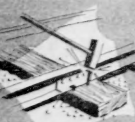

1870. North West Territories transferred by the Crown to the Dominion. Manitoba enters Confederation.

1873. North West Mounted Police established. Prince Edward Island comes into Confederation.

1876. Opening Intercolonial Railway from Quebec to Halifax.

1885. Last spike driven in Canadian Pacific Railway connecting Montreal and Vancouver. Riel's second Rebellion.

1899. Canadian Contingent leaves Quebec for South African War.

1901. Death of Queen Victoria. Accession of King Edward VII.

1905. Creation of Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

1910. Death of King Edward VII. Accession of King George V.

1914-1918. Over 619,000 Canadians enlist for military service in World War I.

- The fledgling Dominion has become a sturdy young nation of the world
- The little sprout of a store is now a Canada-wide source of supply and service

A page for NEW CANADIANS and the NEW GENERATION of SHOPPERS

—or any customers who may not know their EATON history

JULY 1st, 1867—Canada's first Dominion Day—to celebrate Confederation of her scattered, unrelated provinces. The hardy North American member of the British Empire enters a bright new era of development and progress. Sir John A. Macdonald is first Prime Minister.

1869

Timothy Eaton, young, Irish and idealistic, opens Dry Goods business on ground floor of little 24 by 60-foot shop at south-west corner of Yonge and Queen Streets.

1879—Store has prospered. People like the new Eaton way of shopping—plainly marked prices, no dickering, no one urged to buy, and the crowning, incredible advantage, GOODS SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED. Original premises enlarged.

1883—Eaton's moves up Yonge Street to 190, site of present Store. During next ten years building spreads south to Queen Street, north to Albert Street, and west to James Street.

1884—First Eaton Catalogue—for Toronto Exhibition visitors—and birth of the Mail Order.

1891—Daily working time for Eaton Employees now reduced by many hours, with, something unique in retail business, Saturday half-holiday in July and August. Timothy Eaton hailed as Father of the Early Closing Movement.

1893—Opening of Eaton's first Overseas Buying Office—in London.

1905—Winnipeg Store opened.

1907—John Craig Eaton becomes President—on death of his father, Timothy Eaton, on January 31st.

1914-1918—3327 Eaton men enlist for military service in World War I. King George V confers knighthood on the President in recognition of his many-sided contribution to the war effort.

1919—Celebration of the Store's Golden Jubilee. Mail Order Branch opened at Moncton. Full day holiday, with pay, on Saturdays in July and August.

1922—Death of Sir John C. Eaton after a brief illness. Mr. R. Y. Eaton, Vice-President of the Company and nephew of the founder, becomes President.

1925-1930—Expansion. 1925—Eaton's of Montreal opens. 1927—Stores in Hamilton and Saskatoon. 1928—Canadian Department Stores. 1929—Stores in Edmonton and Calgary. 1930—EATON'S-College Street, Toronto.

1939-1945—World War II. Eaton men and women enlisted in Navy, Army and Air Force—5615.

1942—On the retirement of Mr. R. Y. Eaton, Mr. John David Eaton is elected President of the Company—the third in direct line of the Eaton family.

JULY 1st, 1947—Eaton's rejoices with Canada in the large measure of peace and prosperity which has been restored to this favoured land.

T. EATON CO. LIMITED
